

Resume
Douglas Y.S. Park

Address: Office of the General Counsel
1226 University of Oregon
Eugene, OR 97401
Phone: (541) 346-3082
Email: dougpark@uoregon.edu

EDUCATION

- Juris Doctor, University of Oregon School of Law, Eugene, Oregon 1993
- Bachelor of Arts, English, University of Washington, Seattle, Washington 1988

LEGAL EXPERIENCE

Office of the General Counsel, University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon 2007–present
Assistant & Associate General Counsel and Special Assistant Attorney General

Job Description: Higher education law and policy; provide advice and legal services to university administrators and other personnel; advise internal committees; work with internal and external constituents to advance university actions and programs; review and prepare information to be released for high profile cases; manage and conduct internal investigations; manage and supervise outside counsel; represent the university before state and federal agencies; review and draft legal documents, including policies, administrative rules, and contracts for senior administrators; conduct negotiations; analyze and advise on effects of proposed legislation and agency rules; provide training to university employees; supervise law clerks and support staff.

Areas of Responsibility: Management, supervision, and litigation planning; copyright and trademark; information technology; student affairs; campus safety and law enforcement; museums and libraries; alumni association; international programs; immigration; accreditation; academic extension; public records; public meetings; government ethics and conflict of interest; labor and employment; business transactions; contract drafting and review; State and Federal constitutional matters (e.g. First, Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment issues and analogous issues under the Oregon Constitution); sponsored research; faculty tenure and promotion; risk management; student rights.

Representative Matters:

- Manage and advise on numerous business and intellectual property transactions, including negotiating the contract for the Ken Kesey collection;
- Manage and advice on internal and external investigations into university departments and activities, including the recent FBI, U.S. Department of Justice, and Oregon Secretary of State investigations into the Institute of Neuroscience and other UO payroll matters.
- Assist with various Board of Trustee issues, including matters relating to governance, public records, public meetings and government ethics.
- Work with external constituents such as city officials and university personnel to develop memoranda of understanding for on-campus and off-campus law enforcement matters to ensure Clery Act compliance and provide broader patrol jurisdiction.
- Work with other OUS universities and Chancellor's Office to resolve shared services for SEIU collective bargaining negotiations, grievances and arbitrations.

- Serve as General Counsel Office's chief of staff and meet regularly with all other university chiefs of staff to implement university actions.
- Regularly provide advice on issues relating to faculty rights student rights, and other privacy matters.
- Work with UO administrators and UO Foundation on investment matters.
- Review and draft information releases for controversial or high profile matters such as external audits and investigations, information systems security breaches, law enforcement matters and litigation.
- Currently serving on management team negotiating the first SEIU collective bargaining agreement for university police officers; previously served on bargaining team in negotiations with Graduate Teaching Fellows Federation (2007 and 2009).
- Defended civil rights complaints (race, sex, disability discrimination, national origin, etc.) before state and federal agencies; also managed successful outcome in the recent Emeldi v. UO federal case alleging novel theories that would have undermined professorial discretion and the university's academic freedom.
- Drafted administrative rules relating to (1) museum acquisition and de-accessioning of art, and (2) random drug-testing for student athletes.
- Assist with modification of international programs.
- Advise on laws addressing diversity, affirmative action and non-discrimination in employment, admissions, financial aid and scholarships.
- Advise on immigration law applicable to students, visiting scholars, and employees.
- Drafted and advised on numerous externally funded research agreements.
- Advise on numerous copyright and trademark issues, and manage litigation relating to those matters.
- Advise on issues related to online courses offered through academic extension and the College of Education.
- Advise on various constitutional law issues, including First Amendment freedom of speech and academic freedom, Second Amendment right to firearms on campuses, Fourth Amendment search and seizure, and Fourteenth Amendment due process and equal protection matters.
- Assist with drafting multi-year complex contracts for employee contracts and long-term business and service agreements.
- Served on multiple university committees, ranging from the committee for policies on policies, computer information security, five-year review committee for the Vice-President for Student Affairs, search committees, etc.

Oregon Department of Justice, Trial Division, Eugene, Oregon
Assistant Attorney General and Senior Assistant Attorney General

1998–2007

Job Description: Federal and state court litigation in state circuit courts and federal district courts, appellate work in Oregon Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit, and U.S. Supreme Court; representative on department's diversity committee; assisted in drafting legislation; provided CLE training to district attorneys and department attorneys; and supervise law clerks.

Areas of Responsibility: Federal district court litigation involving federal constitutional and international treaty challenges to state statutes, state court judgments, rules of appellate procedure and administrative rules; state court litigation involving state and federal constitutional challenges to criminal judgments, state statutes, and administrative rules; defense of state agencies, such as the Psychiatric Security Review

Board, Department of Corrections and the Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision; and defense of district attorneys.

Representative Matters:

- Counsel for the State at the federal district court level and developed the arguments in district court that ultimately prevailed in the United States Supreme Court in Baldwin v. Reese, 541 U.S. 27 (2004), and Premo v. Moore, ___ U.S. ___, 131 S.Ct. 733.
- Member of the Department of Justice Supreme Court team that successfully litigated Baldwin v. Reese, 541 U.S. 27 (2004) in the United States Supreme Court.
- Counsel for the State and developed the winning arguments in the following published decisions: Aydiner v. Giusto, 401 F.Supp.2d 1129 (D. Or. 2005); Johnston v. Hill, 340 F.Supp.2d 1134 (D. Or. 2004); and Furnish v. Palmateer (230 F.Supp.2d 1230, D.Or. 2002).
- State Circuit Court litigation involving state and federal constitutional challenges to criminal judgments, state statutes and administrative rules, including Kinkel v. Lawhead, Marion Co. Circuit Court Case No. 03C21079 – the worst school shooting case in Oregon State history.
- Assisted drafting legislation providing for post-conviction DNA testing for defendants in cases where testing could establish innocence. See § 1 to 5, Chapter 697, Oregon Laws 2001 (Temporarily placed in ORS 138.005 (2007)).
- Received Department of Justice Outstanding Achievement Award for (1) successfully defending constitutionality of Oregon’s dangerous offender sentencing statute from challenges brought under the Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments and Apprendi v. New Jersey, 530 U.S. 466 (2000), and (2) successfully defending the constitutionality of the appellate procedure outlined in State v. Balfour, 311 Or. 434, 814 P.2d 1069 (1991) from equal protection and due process challenges.
- Received Double Merit Award for service to Department of Justice and legal profession.
- Organized and presented CLE training for Oregon District Attorneys and Department of Justice attorneys on racial profiling and sexual orientation.

University of Oregon School of Law, Eugene, Oregon
Adjunct Professor

2003–2008

Job Description: Instructor for state and federal collateral and post-conviction remedies class; advisor for comprehensive and basic paper requirements.

Associated Counsel for the Accused, Seattle, Washington
Washington State Public Defender

1995–1998

Job Description: Represented indigent clients charged with criminal offenses at jury trials, bench trials, pretrial hearings, arraignments, competency hearings, civil compromise negotiations, warrant quashing hearings, probation revocation hearings, and in filing appeals.

PUBLICATIONS

- 2005 Oregon State Bar Criminal Law CLE Manual, Chapter 30, Co-author
- 2005 Oregon State Bar Criminal Law CLE Manual, Chapter 31, Co-author
- Willamette Law Review Vo. 41 Number 3, Survey 2005, “Fairly Presenting Federal Claims to the State Courts: Recent Developments in Preserving Federal Claims for Subsequent Federal Court Review.” Co-author

SELECTED PRESENTATIONS

- National Association of College and University Attorneys Annual Conference, Using Counsel as a Sword or Shield 2012
- University of Oregon School of Law, Ethics & Professionalism 2009–2012
- National Association of College and University Attorneys Annual Conference, Regulating Firearms on Campus 2009
- Ninth Circuit Conference, Supreme Court Case Review 2006
- Lewis & Clark Law School Victims Advocacy, Impact of Supreme Court Cases on Sentencing Proceedings 2004
- Oregon District Attorney's Association Conference, Equal Protection 2003
- Oregon County Counsels Association Conference, Equal Protection 2003
- Oregon District Attorney's Association Conference, DNA testing 2000

SELECTED PROFESSIONAL & VOLUNTEER SERVICE

- University of Oregon Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art, Leadership Council, current Chair of Board Development Committee and member of Executive Committee 2012–present
- University of Oregon Law School, Guest Lecture on Public Records and Public Meetings Law 2013–present
- Oregon Asian Pacific American Bar Association, Pipeline Series Presentations for Law Students 2011–present
- University of Oregon School of Law, Government and Municipal Law Panelist 2011
- National Association of College and University Attorneys, Program Committee Member for Annual Conference 2010
- University of Oregon School of Law Judge Multiple Mediation and Negotiation Competitions 2008–2009
- Department of Justice, Plan and Coordinate Continuing Legal Education Programs 2002

BAR ADMISSION

- State of Oregon
- State of Washington
- United States Supreme Court
- Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals
- Federal District Court, District of Oregon