

Standard of the University of Oregon

Tuition Discount at the University of Oregon

Pursuant to Sections 170 and 172 of Senate Bill 270 (2013) and other applicable law, this Standard is adopted and is effective July 1, 2014.

Officers of administration and unrepresented faculty of the University of Oregon who are using the tuition discount provided through the Oregon University System tuition discount program for the undergraduate education of a dependent child will be entitled to a second, concurrent tuition discount for a dependent child to attend undergraduate programs at the University of Oregon. The terms, conditions, eligibility requirements, and discount applicable to this additional tuition discount will be the same as the terms, conditions, eligibility requirements and discount available under the Oregon University System tuition discount program.

All units are directed to comply with this Standard until further notice.
