

UO Office of the Provost
Criteria for Evaluating Strategic Initiative Proposals
January 2024

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Invest in Strategic Areas. Build on existing strengths and selectively invest in emerging academic programs with a high probability of providing sustainable strategic advantage to the UO.
- Encourage Collaborative Innovation. Promote high quality interdisciplinary programming and encourage cross-unit efforts to support students, teaching, and research.
- Support Research and Creative Activity. Encourage academic success by promoting programs that support the highest quality research, scholarship, and creative activity.
- Build Faculty Excellence. While faculty lines are not part of the Strategic Initiative process (they are handled through the Institutional Hiring Plan), it remains a priority to support the recruitment and retention of exceptionally promising tenure-related faculty and promote the recognition of faculty accomplishments to build national and international distinction.

ACCESS AND STUDENT SUCCESS

- Ensure Public Access. Increase educational attainment in Oregon and provide opportunity for all qualified Oregonians regardless of income.
- Promote Diversity and Inclusion. Develop and enhance programs to increase diversity among students, faculty, and staff, with emphasis on recruitment, retention, and evaluation.
- Foster Undergraduate Student Success. Increase qualifications of incoming students and promote quality undergraduate instruction, retention, and improved graduation rates.
- Support Graduate Education. Increase quality and diversity of incoming graduate cohorts, improve graduate program performance, and enhance success of graduate degree recipients.

FINANCIAL STABILITY, EFFICIENCY AND COMPLIANCE

- Promote Safety and Compliance and Minimize Risk. Protect campus safety, ensure compliance with federal, state and university laws, regulations, and policies and mitigate other serious risks to our ability to pursue the institution's mission.
- Seek Efficiencies. Facilitate and incentivize efficient and effective delivery of support services and implementation of sound business practices.
- Ensure Financial Stability. Encourage long-term financial viability and the sustainability of the University of Oregon.
