SWAT’s Mission

The Sexual Wellness Advocacy Team Internship Program is committed to educating the campus community about sexual assault, relationship violence, and stalking through innovative, accessible presentations encompassing elements of theatre, experiential learning and multimedia. We honor survivors and aim to prevent interpersonal violence while giving students the opportunity to gain new skills.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will train you to educate your peers about issues of interpersonal violence, including consent, sexual assault, relationship violence and stalking, using theatre and other participatory activities as social change techniques. Students are encouraged to explore issues of privilege and oppression in our culture and their intersection with interpersonal violence, and to engage in self-exploration throughout the term.

In the beginning of the term, interns will participate in a one day weekend workshop on community-based theater techniques. We will continue to explore these techniques throughout the term. Most SWAT classes will consists of approximately 1.5 hours of training on the given topic, followed by 1.5 hours of discussion and activities related to both theater techniques and training topics.

OBJECTIVES

- To understand the basic concepts around issues of interpersonal violence, including sexual assault, relationship violence and stalking.
- To learn theatre techniques and facilitation skills and use them as tools to educate the campus community at large.
- To gain knowledge about the resources and procedures on campus and in the community.
- To build and promote healthy relationship skills.
- To gain experience in creating and delivering innovative, creative and accessible presentations on sexual and dating violence for the campus community.
COURSE STRUCTURE

This class is graded pass/no pass and will be conducted as a seminar. It will include guest presenters sharing their expertise about specific areas of interpersonal violence. In addition to class meetings and the retreat, students should expect to devote 3 hours/week outside of class to SWAT. Out-of-class time includes workshops, class reading, discussion questions, and tabling/outreach.

Students are responsible for active participation in the class, participating in the required number out-of-class performances and completing all assignments on time. Students are encouraged to participate in activities/presentations related to the class topic.

Out of class performance/presentation/tabling dates and times will be discussed in advance with the class –once you have signed up for them - attendance is mandatory (unless YOU find someone at least 1 week in advance to substitute for your role).

Students are expected to be at class, rehearsals and performances on time. If you know you will be late because of a specific reason, please notify Abigail Leeder or your group in advance.

Students are also required to attend the Fall class workshop on October 12 & 13.

A total of 70 or more points denotes a passing grade as long as the student has earned more than Fifty percent of the points per each category. Fewer than 70 points or failure to complete at least Fifty percent of the requirements in each category denotes a failing grade.

Class Participation (25%)

Students are expected to be engaged in dialogue and discussion about the topics of each class and to contribute to continued workshop development. Throughout the term students are invited and expected to:

- Speak up in class and assume leadership in exercises
- Listen to other opinions and allow others space to express themselves
- Incorporate material discussed in class into the improvisation and theater exercises
- Be supportive of each other and work as a team

Journals & Creative Reflection: (35%)

- Students are expected to complete all assigned readings before class and submit responses to the journal prompts on Blackboard WEEKLY. Journal responses are due BEFORE class each week. These responses are to be well thought out and reflect integration of readings, in-class discussions and workshop experiences. Please make your responses thorough and a minimum of 250 words.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ACCESSING JOURNAL PROMPTS ON Blackboard: On our Blackboard course page, go to the “Readings & Journal Assignments” link on the left. In the “Readings” folder, all readings are organized by week. To find the journal prompt for that week and submit your response, go into the “Weekly Journal Assignments” folder. Click on the appropriate week, and then click on “About This Journal” to view the prompt. Next, click “Create Journal Entry” to draft and post your response.
• The final assignment for class is a creative reflection. This could be a poem, a drawing or painting, a song or some other way that you wish to work to integrate and reflect the material. They will be presented to the group at the final class party Week 10.

One-on-One Meetings: (5%)
I will meet with each intern at least once during the term. This is a chance for us to touch base about what is coming up for you around the course material as well as discuss your assignments. It is also a time get further coaching about your role and participation in the workshops and share insights that you might not feel comfortable sharing in class. We will meet once within the first five weeks and if additional meeting time is desired by the student, or by the instructor, we will meet again during the second half of the term. I will pass around a sign up sheet with times I am available.

Workshop Participation: (35%) As SWAT, our goal is give at least 10 presentations/workshops to the campus community winter term. Each intern is required to participate in at least 4 presentations this term as well as table at least 3 hours per term (if SWAT tabling requests allow). New SWAT students will be observing their first two or three workshops. Observation will count toward the workshop participation requirement. While four is the minimum requirement we ask that you be willing to contribute your time toward SWAT meeting its presentation goals and reaching a wide campus audience. We would like to avoid an imbalance with some interns overextending themselves therefore we encourage voluntary participation beyond the minimum requirement.

Please plan to spend 60 minutes with your group preparing the week before a presentation and 30 minutes debriefing with the group afterward. We will also check in briefly in class after each presentation.

Workshop Sign-ups – Will be done in class and occasionally online.
All Students are expected to check UO email accounts daily

Extra Credit SWAT Projects
Attending the UO Alliance for Sexual Assault Prevention meetings (First Wednesday of each month 12-1) or serving as a liaison to other student organizations can count as extra credit.

ATTENDANCE AND ABSENCE GUIDELINES
Class Attendance at SWAT is mandatory. If you are going to miss a class please email Abigail aleeder@uoregon.edu prior to class. Please do not pass word with other people, contact Abigail directly.

EXPECTED BEHAVIOR
Students must understand that they are selected into this class as leaders and ambassadors for the Sexual Wellness Advocacy Team Program. They are held to a high standard of personal conduct both in and outside class. Please be mindful that your interactions outside class also reflect the high standard that is associated with being a SWAT leader. This includes the kind of information that you share on things like Facebook and your interaction with other students in informal settings. Students are expected to NOT be under the influence of drugs or alcohol when they are in class or at any event or context where they are representing SWAT.

Students are encouraged to engage in respectful dialogue around the issues presented in class. We encourage students to be aware of the power and control dynamics in our day-to-day interactions and be mindful of others in class. Any physical, verbal or psychological intimidation toward anyone in class will not be tolerated.
Students are also expected to maintain professional conduct with each other while in class and at SWAT events, even if they may have personal relationships or friendships with each other outside the class.

Classroom expectations include:
- Participating in class activities
- Respecting the diversity of cultures, opinions, viewpoints in the classroom
- Listening to fellow students, professors, and lecturers with respect
- Arriving on time, prepared for class
- Attending for the duration of class, not reading other materials, books, newspapers or using laptops for other activities.
- NO TEXT MESSAGING. Turn off cell phones and other electronic devices
- Racist, homophobic, sexist, and other disrespectful comments will not be tolerated

Given the topics of discussion in class, we recognize that there may be issues that may come up for some students in the class. Please take care of yourself. You can consult with a counselor at the University Counseling and Testing Center (to make an appointment call 346-3227) or seek other outside help/support. You are always welcome to talk with Abigail as well.

From time to time, portions of the class or presentations/performance may be photographed, and/or video/audio recorded. Students should feel free to let the instructor know if they are not comfortable with that.

Students should also feel free to bring information about events related to class issues to class. Students are welcome to notify the class through email about such events. Blackboard should not to be used for issues that are not related to the class.

Diversity
It is the policy of the University of Oregon to support and value diversity. To do so requires that we:
- respect the dignity and essential worth of all individuals.
- promote a culture of respect throughout the University community.
- respect the privacy, property, and freedom of others.
- reject bigotry, discrimination, violence, or intimidation of any kind.
- practice personal and academic integrity and expect it from others.
- promote the diversity of opinions, ideas and backgrounds which is the lifeblood of the university.

Documented Disability
Appropriate accommodations will be provided for students with documented disabilities. If you have a documented disability and require accommodation, arrange to meet with the course instructor within the first two weeks of the term. The documentation of your disability must come in writing from the Accessible Education Center in the Office of Academic Advising and Student Services. Disabilities may include (but are not limited to) neurological impairment, orthopedic impairment, traumatic brain injury, visual impairment, chronic medical conditions, emotional/psychological disabilities, hearing impairment, and learning disabilities. For more information on Accessible Education Center, please see http://aec.uoregon.edu

Mandatory Reporting
UO employees, including faculty, staff, and GTFs, are mandatory reporters of child abuse when the employee has “reasonable cause to believe any child with whom the employee comes in contact has suffered abuse or that any person with whom the employee comes in contact has abused a child.” UO employees, including faculty, staff, and GTFs, also are mandatory reporters of prohibited discrimination when the employee obtains “credible evidence that any form of prohibited discrimination by or against students, faculty or staff is occurring.” “Prohibited discrimination” includes discrimination, and discriminatory harassment, including sexual harassment and sexual assault. This statement is to advise you that that your disclosure of information about child abuse or prohibited discrimination to a UO employee may trigger the UO employee’s duty to report that information to the designated authorities. Please refer to the following links for detailed information about mandatory reporting:

Academic Misconduct Policy
All students are subject to the regulations stipulated in the UO Student Conduct Code http://conduct.uoregon.edu). This code represents a compilation of important regulations, policies, and procedures pertaining to student life. It is intended to inform students of their rights and responsibilities during their association with this institution, and to provide general guidance for enforcing those regulations and policies essential to the educational and research missions of the University.

Conflict Resolution
Several options, both informal and formal, are available to resolve conflicts for students who believe they have been subjected to or have witnesses bias, unfairness, or other improper treatment.

It is important to exhaust the administrative remedies available to you including discussing the conflict with the specific individual, contacting the Department Head, or within the College of Education, you can contact Angie Whalen, Assistant Dean for Academic Programs and Student Services, at 346-2898 or awhalen@uoregon.edu; Ron Beghetto, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, at 346-1534 or beghetto@uoregon.edu; or Surendra Subramani, Diversity Coordinator, at 346-1472 or surendra@uoregon.edu.

- Outside the College, you can contact:
- UO Bias Response Team: 346-1139 or http://bias.uoregon.edu/whatbrt.htm
- Conflict Resolution Services 346-0617 or http://studentlife.uoregon.edu/SupportandEducation/ConflictResolutionServices/tabid/134/Default.aspx

Affirmative action and Equal Opportunity: 346-3123 or http://aaeo.uoregon.edu/

Grievance Policy
A student or group of students of the College of Education may appeal decisions or actions pertaining to admissions, programs, evaluation of performance and program retention and completion. Students who decide to file a grievance should follow the student grievance procedure, or alternative ways to file a grievance outlined in the Student Grievance Policy (https://education.uoregon.edu/academics/student-grievance) or enter search: student grievance.

In Case of Inclement Weather
In the event the University operates on a curtailed schedule or closes, UO media relations will notify the Eugene-Springfield area radio and television stations as quickly as possible. In addition, a notice regarding the university’s schedule will be posted on the UO main home page (in the “News” section) at http://www.uoregon.edu. Additional information is available at http://hr.uoregon.edu/policy/weather.html.

If an individual class must be canceled due to inclement weather, illness, or other reason, a notice will be posted on Blackboard or via email. During periods of inclement weather, please check Blackboard and your email rather than contact department personnel. Due to unsafe travel conditions, departmental staff may be limited and unable to handle the volume of calls from you and others.

Course Incomplete Policy
Students are expected to be familiar with university policy regarding grades of “incomplete” and the time line for completion. For details on the policy and procedures regarding incompletes, Please see: https://education.uoregon.edu/academics/incompletes-courses
